CAPITALISTS CALLED ENEMIES OF MEXICO

d'Austin's Illness Prevents Speech on Religion-Unknown Speaker Defends Financial Interests There.

Washington, is threatened ing of the Secular League yesterday. For Ten time he was unable to keep Lo an engagement to lecture in the Pythian "The Religious Question in But the meeting proceeded to discuss the subject anyway. David Eccles, of of the radical organization, digressed far enough to say that he thought the Mexican official's absence could be accounted for on diplomatic grounds and that he "would probably not find it convenient to be present, though arrangements be made each meeting for six months. Socialists attacked the foreign capitalists of Mexico as more responsible than ecclesiastics for the strife there. Julian Pierce, of 1008 Eleventh street porthwest, insisted that more than two billion dollars' worth, or three-fourths of the total wealth-producing property of Mexico, is owned by foreign capitalists He labeled them all "parasites." When he had finished a man from Mexico, as he name, replied.

"I am one of those parasites," said he "But I want to say that when Americans went into Mexico, the peons were getting but two bits "Mex" a day. After the Americans came, they got a dollar and one half "Mex." More than that, they now wearing clothes like the rest of world, where before they had but s single garment of the cheapest cloth. U.S. SHIP KANKAKEE WAS SEIZED AS WAR PRIZE

She Now Has British Crew on Board.

State Department has been informed officially that the British cruiser Macedonia seized the American steamship Kankakee, owned by the American Trans-Atlantic Steamship Company, and put her officers and crew ashore at Montevideo. The information came from the American consul at Montevideo. This is the third vessel of the Ameri-

Trans-Atlantic Transport Company be seized by the British. The others nt Halifax, and the Genesee, now held at Harvey's Famous Restaurant.

It was stated in the dispatch from Montevideo that the Kankakee was N. W. (Rear First Floor). High-class seized as a prize of war, that she has a prize crew aboard, and will be taken to the nearest British prize court.

The department also received yesterday a telegram from the steamship company asking if it had any information about the missing vessel. Mr. Wagner
